From the Desk of Ray Poplas

Dear Fellow Proclaimers of the Word:

I hope your summer has gone well as we look forward to a bountiful autumn.

I want to thank you for your dedication to this ministry. As always, we want to include others in our ministry. Please encourage others to participate in our ministry, by your joyful voices.

No new changes in lectors for this scheduling period. However, I did not include Mr. David Caristo's contact information on the last listing. Theresa White has not returned to the ministry full time but will be available to fill in. Thank you for your generosity of time to this ministry. As of this time, I have not heard from the Challenge leaders on Sunday Masses that they would like to participate. I have heard that their first meeting is not until October. Please keep this in mind, if you are contacted to allow a member of the Challenge group to participate in the readings. You may lend your guidance for their lecturing.

Please keep the schedule handy for easy reference, and arrange with one of your fellow lectors if you are unable to lector at a given mass (contact info on back). Just in case you are not assigned to lector at a given mass, if you notice that a lector has not processed in with the priest then hopefully the Holy Spirit will assist you in filling in. I added the preferences for masses to help you find a replacement faster. You can call me at 215-572-1527 or email me at raymondpoplas@comcast.net.

May God bless you and keep you until we meet again. As the school year starts and various activities abound, remember all good gifts around us are from Heaven above.

God has given us the talents of our voices, let raise our voices in Gifts to God

Yours in fellowship of Christ,

Raymond W. Poplas
