

From the Desk of Ray Poplas

Dear Fellow Proclaimers of the Word:

I hope that the New Roman Missal will bring each of closer to God on our journey through life. I trust that you are full of anticipation for Advent and Lenten Seasons, as we prepare for Christmas and Easter.

I want to thank you for your dedication to this ministry. As always, we want to include others in our ministry. Please encourage others to participate in our ministry, by your joyful voices. If anyone expresses interest to you about lecturing please pass their name and phone number on to me or Father Janton. We have added Barbara Quinn and Judy Kelley to our ministry; join me in welcoming these ladies to our group.

Please keep the schedule handy for easy reference, it will also be posted on the OLHC website http://www.olhc-parish.org/general_info/ministries.htm please check it weekly. If you find yourself unable to make Mass, please arrange with one of your fellow. If you notice that a lector has not processed in with the priest, then hopefully the Holy Spirit will assist you in filling in. I added the preferences for masses to help you find a replacement faster. If you are unable to find someone, it would be greatly appreciated that you notify Father Janton, so that Father can make arrangements at Mass with someone to read. You can call me at 215-572-1527 or email me at raypop2112@comcast.net.

The new Lector's workbook will be available this Sunday November 13 at church; I will be at the main entrance to distribute the books. Please stop by for your copy.

May God bless you and keep you until we meet again.

God has given us the talents of our voices, let raise our voices in Gifts to God. Best Wishes for a Merry Christmas and Peace and Prosperity in the New Year.

Yours in fellowship of Christ,

Raymond W. Poplas